

Be Strong #34

Left Behind?

This past Wednesday night, after an awesome hour of worship and Bible study, I asked our high school students at Impact this question:

“If you knew for certain that the rapture would happen next Wednesday night at 10:00 PM, how would you live your life this week?”

That’s all I said. We sang a song and then we were done. When I asked the question I could see their wheels turning. What about you? How would you spend your final seven days? My mind has taken off with all kinds of thoughts and ideas, but I won’t share them with you now. Maybe I’ll save that for another day. But you however... I would love to hear your thoughts about what you would do. So, read 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 then consider the question. If you choose, I would love to read your thoughts. Write them down and reply. Have an awesome day, and remember---you are the parent. Be strong!

In His Joy!

Jerome

Ephesians 6:10

“Brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep, or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him.

According to the Lord's own word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left till the coming of the Lord, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first.

After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage each other with these words.” 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18
